

MEMPHIS FELLOWS

Welcome to our Class of 2020! This is our 15th class of Fellows, recent college graduates who develop professionally, experience authentic community, worship together with God's people, minister in the community, live with a host family, and are mentored by a member of the church during the nine-month program.

Jeremiah Davis attended the University of Memphis, where he studied journalism with a concentration in creative mass media. He is originally from Jackson, Tennessee, and he thrives when he is writing songs, making beats, and being creative for God's glory. Jeremiah is looking forward to growing in his love for God through studying the Bible and being more deeply immersed into the Memphis culture through ministry. He will be working at Consortium MMT. He is living with Bob and Deb Coleman and will be mentored by Worth Whitten.

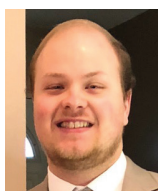

Emma Forrest is originally from Nashville, Tennessee, and graduated from the University of Tennessee, where she majored in advertising with a minor in business administration. In her free time, Emma loves making playlists, biking, throwing a dinner party, and exploring new places. She looks forward to trying Memphis restaurants, cheering on the Grizzlies, and meeting new people over the course of this next year. She will be working at Monogram Foods. She is living with Brandon, Rachel, Blake, Andrew, and Evan Hammons and will be mentored by Allison Neubert.

Levi Gresham grew up in Pawnee, Illinois, and he recently graduated from Southeast Missouri State University, where he majored in business administration with an emphasis in finance and minored in management. He loves worshipping the Lord with his guitar and voice, especially alongside other brothers and sisters in Christ. He will be working under Paul Norman at the Binghamton Development Corporation. Levi is living with Sam, Lacey, Archer, Mary Hudson, and Walt Moody and will be mentored by Taylor Tollison.

Jen Kondas is from Virginia Beach, Virginia. She recently graduated from the University of Virginia with a major in American studies and a minor in urban planning. She loves UVA basketball, making art, and traveling. Jen is passionate about the power of cities, empowerment, and social justice, and she is so excited to experience Memphis as her new home. She will be working at the Alcy Ball Development Corporation. Jen is living with Ryan, Stacey, and Eleanor Hays and will be mentored by Kelsey Bierman.

Caleb King grew up in Jonesboro, Arkansas, where he attended Arkansas State University. He majored in sports management and minored in business. Caleb enjoys playing and watching sports that have a ball or a puck. He loves traveling the country to watch sports and visit family and friends. Caleb will be working at Coaching for Literacy and Grizzfit. He is living with Frank and Sandy Eggers and will be mentored by Tyler Hoog.

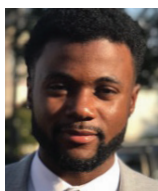

Karen LeDuc grew up in the D.C. suburb of Silver Spring, Maryland, and graduated from Grove City College where she majored in psychology. She loves taking road trips, going to art museums, listening to music, and spending time with friends. Karen really looks forward to making memories and building strong relationships in Memphis. She will be working at the Binghampton Development Corporation doing student outreach. Karen is living with A.J.,

Hannah, Ruthie, Lila, and Frannie Crowley, and she will be mentored by Christy Young.

Eric Monroe is from Canton, Georgia, and he recently graduated from Rhodes College. He studied general business with a concentration in marketing and finance, and he earned a minor in religious studies. Eric loves to play sports, hang out with friends, watch movies, and play video games. He is looking forward to growing in his walk with the Lord and meeting more of his church family in Memphis. Eric will be working at the Salvation Army. He is living with Bobby and Dawn

Shute and will be mentored by Chris Pruett.

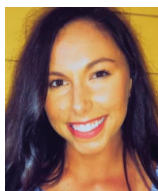

Brad Morrow was born and raised in Jackson, Tennessee, and he attended the University of Memphis. He has a passion for good food and has begun to do crossfit, which he really enjoys despite the physical strain. He will be working for the Binghampton Development Corporation. Brad is living with Frank and Sandy Eggers and will be mentored by Ethan Knight.

Anne Davis Parks graduated from Samford University with degrees in public relations and English, and she is originally from Nashville, Tennessee. She loves to spend time reading, watching Netflix, and catching up with friends. She has spent two summers at Camp DeSoto, a summer in New York City, and a semester in London, and she is looking forward to adding Memphis to the list of places she loves. Anne Davis will be working at Presbyterian Day School. She is living with David and Lee Bowen and will be mentored by Kathy Hammond.

Taylor Wetta was raised in Ozark, Missouri, and she received her bachelor's degree from Arkansas State University with an emphasis in psychology, health, and communication. She loves to play tennis, visit local coffee shops, and travel. She just returned from spending ten weeks on the Orlando Project through Campus Outreach, and she is really looking forward to digging deeper into God's Word and building a stronger understanding of the Gospel. Taylor will be working at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital. She is living with Matt, Mindy, and Mia Gandy and will be mentored by Susan Patterson.
